

E & E WORKWEAR

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

General Statement

E & E Workwear regards the Health, Safety and Welfare of the company's employees and those who may be affected by its activities as being of prime importance and equal to all its other business activities. The following general statement recognizes our obligations under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974, including all relevant regulations and approved codes of practice additional to the Act.

E & E Workwear is therefore committed to:

- providing adequate control of the health and safety risks arising from our work activities;
- consulting with our employees on matters affecting their health and safety;
- providing and maintaining a safe environment and equipment;
- providing information, instruction and supervision for employees;
- ensuring all employees are competent to do their tasks, and giving them adequate training;
- preventing accidents and cases of work-related ill health;
- maintaining safe and healthy working conditions;
- reviewing and revising this policy as necessary at regular intervals.

E & E Workwear recognizes that the co-operation of all staff is vital for the promotion of health and safety in the workplace and therefore each employee has a duty to co-operate by:

- adhering to company rules;
- reporting incidents or hazards which could lead to injury or damage

This policy is supported by Instructions, Procedures and Organisational Arrangements and is to be applied to all activities carried out by the company.
